NN&SS

Partnership

To expand and develop our world-wide business activities, we are always looking for new opportunities. To achieve our goal, which is growth through quality and added value, we are seeking partners who do have the potential to contribute in creating added value, either based on developing new markets for our products or by bringing new technologies and services in our existing markets.

Core Values

By maintaining our core values and remaining focused on improvement & delivery, our vision will become reality.

Be Enthusiastic, Open and Honest

The energy and enthusiasm demonstrated by NN & SS people is infectious and prevalent Group-wide similarly, openness and honesty are standards that we at NN & SS expect to share, practice and live by it's about being realistic and upfront - with the good news and the bad - which earns us respect from our colleagues, clients and supply chain.

Be a Team

Our approach to teamwork starts internally and extends to our clients, customers, professional partners and indeed the communities in which we operate. We recognize the importance of helping each other grow and succeed. Being able to operate as part of a team is a prerequisite for anyone committed to being part of NN & SS. All our successes are there to be shared – as are our shortcomings – and recognizing our good and bad points plays an important part in our drive for continuous improvement.

Be Proactive, Committed and Safe

Our proactive approach gets us recognition as a company that goes that bit further. Whether it's delivering creative solutions or just being helpful, we are proud of the fact that we have the ability to add value in many ways. An underlying commitment to deliver results is another strong NN & SS characteristic and our need to do what we do safely and to protect those around us is at the forefront of all our operations.
