

The Tier 3 category is a new UK visa category to help employers of lower-skilled workers to fill temporary labour shortages. An example of this may be a construction job that requires temporary workers from abroad because of local labour shortages. The Tier 3 scheme is currently suspended by the UK Border Agency.